BOARD of DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors consists of twelve members, each serving staggered three-year terms starting in February, so that four memberships expire each February. Board members are elected by the membership at the annual membership meeting in February. A nominating committee nominates members. Nominations may also be made from the floor, with the restriction that anyone so nominated must have agreed in writing to serve prior to the nomination. Any member may be appointed a Director by the Board to fill an unexpired term. Officers are elected by the board from its twelve members.

At the beginning of 2012 the officers were:

Recording Secretary — Carroll Good	Corresponding Secretary — Carole Milks

The other Board members were Michael O'Connor, Beppy White, Sandy Stowe, Linwood Imlay, Doris Lackey, Ann Miller, Max Lacy, and Tommy Ford.

Doris Lackey resigned in January and was replaced by Roger Schreiner. In March Roger took over as Treasurer from Bill Scholten. In February Michael O'Connor and Ann Miller retired from the Board and were replaced by Jean Busboso and Bill Tidball. In November Bill Tidball resigned and was replaced by Jim Lillard. MEETINGS:

Membership Meetings are held quarterly. Nominal dates for the quarterly meetings are the third Sunday in February, May, August, and November at 2:00 PM. The dates can be rescheduled if necessary to accommodate specific programs. The February Membership Meeting is also the Society's Annual Meeting.

Presentations at the 2012 membership meetings included:

- February — Jim Lillard, Commander, Kemper-Fry-Strother Camp 19, Sons of Confederate Veterans, made a power point presentation to the Society entitled "Mountain Memories" about the families who lived in our local mountains before they became a portion of the Shenandoah National Park.
- May — Jim Flanagan, President and Founder of the Fauquier Civil War Round Table, gave a presentation to the Society entitled "The Horse in the American Civil War." It was a power point about the importance of the horse in the war and how they moved guns, pontoon bridges, food and equipment, ambulances and carried troops and officers.
- August — Dr. Carole Nash, a Middle Atlantic archeologist who specializes in Native American studies, used pictures, maps and diagrams to tell the Society about the historic Manahoac Indians of the Upper Rappahannock.

- November — Jim Lillard, Commander, Kemper-Fry-Strother Camp 19, Sons of Confederate Veterans, made power point presentation to the Society entitled "Civil War Crossings" about how the engineers in the Civil War built the pontoon, timber and stone bridges and other works. The presentation included many pictures from the Library of Congress.

Detailed summaries of the above meetings can be found in the Society's newsletters, which are published in February, May, August, and November.

COUNTY LIAISON

The Society continues to work with the Madison County Board of Supervisors in areas of mutual interest. The Board of Supervisors was kept informed of the progress of the restoration work on the Slave Quarters dependency of the Kemper Residence. We look forward to our continued partnership with the Board of Supervisors for the maintenance of the Kemper Residence and outbuildings, the Arcade Museum, and other historical properties.

KEMPER RESIDENCE

The Residence and two outbuildings, the Law Office and Slave Quarters, are leased by the Society from the County. The Residence is used for a variety of meetings, tours, open houses, and other special occasions.

At the 2012 Taste of the Mountains festival visitors to the residence were greeted by General and Mrs. Kemper (as impersonated by Daniel & Evelyn Desantis).

The Residence is available for rent to private parties of the community. Rentals in 2012 were handled by Mary Haught. The "Kemper Girls" continue to be responsible for the decorating and cleaning of the residence. Present members of this group are Mary Haught, Pam Krause, Maryvonne Longley, Kay Reiss, Heidi Sage, and Jill Schreiner.

The Law Office and Slave Quarters are outbuildings located in the yard behind the Residence. Restoration of the Law Office began in 1999 and was completed in 2003. Restoration of the Slave Quarters began in 2007 and was completed in 2011.

ARCADE MUSEUM

The Society operates the Arcade Museum, a small historic two-story brick building located in the heart of downtown Madison. The Museum is open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 10:00a.m. until 2:00p.m. Travelers from all across the United States visit the Museum looking for their Madison roots.

Notable visits to the Arcade Museum in 2012 include:

- Members of the annual reunion of descendants of the first and second Germanna colonies.

- Group of Westminster-Canterbury residents, many of whom were Madison County residents before retiring

Exhibits at the museum are under the direction of Curator Beppy White. Both the upper and lower floors house permanent and changing exhibits depicting the history of, and life in, Madison County. Permanent exhibits include the Rapidan Railroad exhibit, furnished by Everette Weakley, the Claude Yowell collection of Native American prehistoric tools, the Strode collection of Native American artifacts from Madison County and photographs taken in 1935 of the men, women and children who were living in our mountains when the Shenandoah National Park was established.

In 2012 we unpacked many of the donations we have received over the years and put them out on display.

On the upper floor there is a Research room, which contains a collection of genealogies and obituaries of Madison families, histories and pictures of old Madison County churches, schools, homes and other buildings. A workroom on the second floor is used for constructing archival storage containers, preparing exhibits and storing exhibit materials and supplies.

The Arcade is staffed by a volunteer group under the direction of Beppy White. Volunteers come one or more days a month to staff the museum. The life of the museum is strong due to our many faithful workers. New volunteers are always welcome. Those who volunteered at the Arcade in 2012 are: Jane Volchansky, Michael O'Connor, Beppy White, Linwood Imlay, Carole Milks, Carroll Good, Virginia Utz, Gertha Houston, Dona Hutchinson, Marty Taylor, Susan Theiler, Doris Lackey, Ruth Penn, Jim Lillard, Judy Mahanes, and Kathy Lyons .

In 2012 the Society created a strategic plan for the maintenance and growth of the museum. A complete copy of the plan can be viewed on the Society's web site at www.madisonvahistoricalsociety.org.

CEMETERY DATABASE PROJECT

Documentation of Madison County burial sites was begun back in the early 80's by Earl Estes. This is an ongoing project currently headed by Sandy Stowe. Many volunteers have helped over the years, and there are now over 5000 listings. The Society is indebted to Mary Wright for putting all of our data onto our computer and then transferring the information to CD's, which are now on sale for $10 at the Arcade Museum.

BENEFIT TEAS

The Society held two benefit teas in 2012, on March 28th and October 3rd. Each guest was served the special blend of Kemper House tea, which was complemented with a selection of sweets and savories. Gross proceeds were $720 from the March tea and $840 from the October tea. The teas have proven to be very popular in the community and will continue to be a primary source of funds for the Society.

The teas are coordinated by Bob and Mary Haught with the full participation of Bob Krause, Pam Krause, Meredith Krause, Maryvonne Longley, Kay Reiss, Heidi Sage and Jill Schreiner.

ACQUISITIONS

The Society continues to receive gifts that enrich our collection. Genealogies, both published and hand-written, have helped fill out our Family Files. We welcome the opportunity to copy other papers when the originals are being retained by the owners. Having a copy of an original affords the same information as the original.

MADISON COUNTY PICTORIAL HISTORY

In the spring of 2010 the Society contracted with nationally known Arcadia Publishing Company to publish a pictorial history of Madison County as a part of its popular Images of America series. Society Board member Doris Lackey and society member Trish Crowe, agreed to be co-authors. Archivist and board member Beppy White helped with fact checking and writing. Mary Wright entered pictures and text into the database, with computer consultation from Charles Moncrief. Charles and Mary were awarded honorary memberships for their pro-bono professional contributions. Archeologist Carole Nash and Architectural Historian and Board member Ann Miller served as project consultants.

Many people from Madison County and beyond contributed more than 650 images of people and places in Madison County. The stories and photographs tell a rich history of Madison County. These were scanned and are now preserved in the database. Contributors are acknowledged in the introduction of the book with much gratitude. The book publisher limited photographs for the book to no more than 240 images and no more than 18,000 words. The Society anticipates our own publication of photographs that are not in the book.

The book Images of America, Madison County became available for sale in the week of March 21, 2011. The Society sells them at the Arcade and at the Kemper House Teas. They are also available at Barnes and Noble and Amazon, among others, as well as from many local vendors. The cost for the book is $21.99 plus tax. Since its publication, royalties for sales of the book have contributed significantly to the Society's treasury. $723.19 in royalties were collected in 2012 (see page 8).
